EARLHAM
COLLEGE

RICHMOND, INDIANA

SARGASSO
1965

1965 SARGASSO

Editor James F. Kreider

What is Earlham?

A collection of buildings

A place to study

An escape from the world

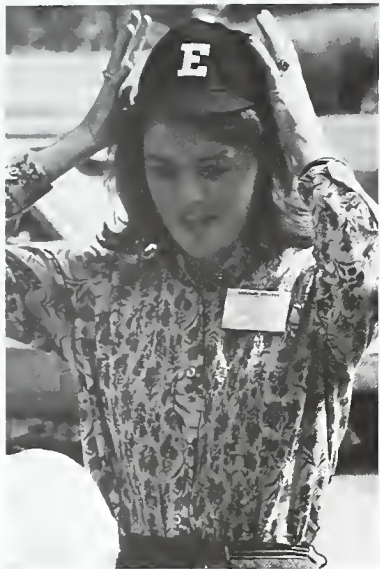

A dodge from the draft

A chance to find a mate

A place to learn—from books and from living with others

An opportunity to discover oneself . . .

Opening Section	page 4

The Frosh
 Arriving without many friends
 if any Expectant
 but not sure of what's ahead Possessing their own ideas about "college" but not all of them true at Earlham
 Some will be disappointed
 Others will find it okay
 Things to do if you want
 Or just waiting in your room . . .

Trying to learn about others
Striving to make an impression
Sometimes succeeding
Sometimes not
Still early in the year.

The grind begins
 For some it is Dennis
 For others it's Carp or Tyler
 The library will harbor anyone . . .

Study
Indoors or out
Early or late
Perhaps both
But just study . . .

Work and study
Till you're tired
Till you think—
"I can't take anymore."
Then do some more.

Free time is scarce
But make or take time to act . . .

to react

... to interact.

19

Hack around
Horse around
Need a break
Need some fun

21

People
More people
Seems there's always a crowd Privacy?

26

Narrow down the crowd
Down to two Find someone Need someone
Love someone

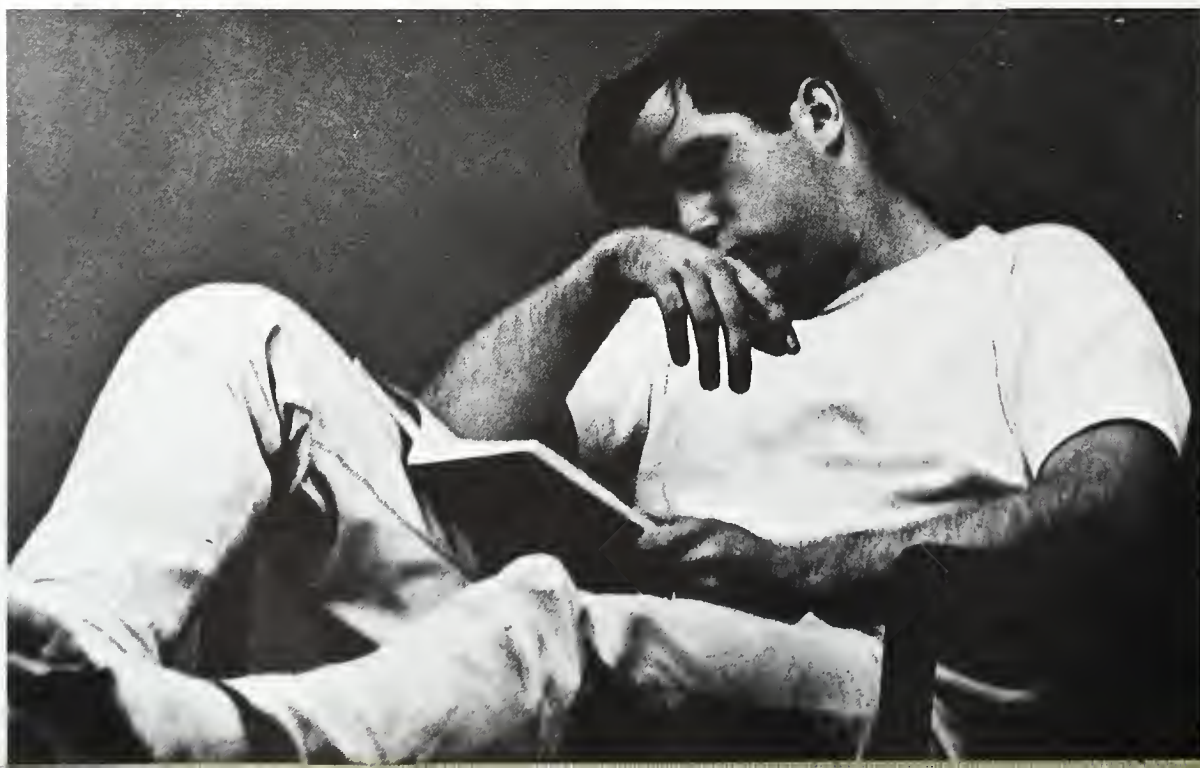

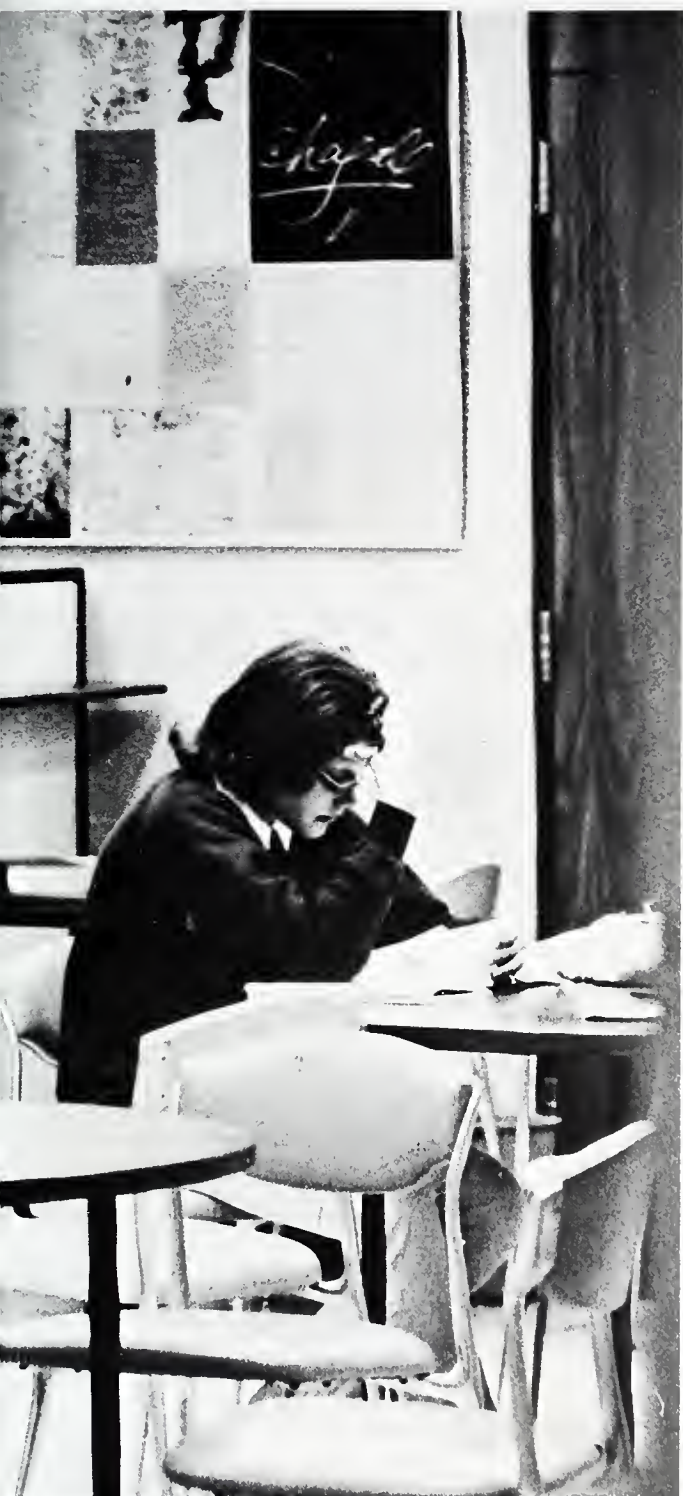

Yet there are times
when you must get away
To be by yourself
To think.

32

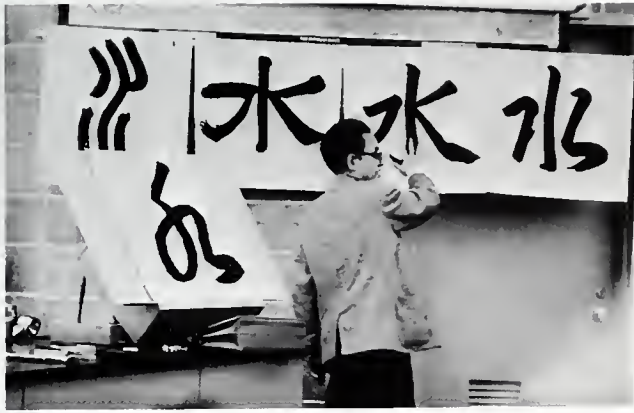

No matter how long
or short the break
the books
are always there
Studying yet to do.

Won Kyung Cho

Nankoku Hidai, Calligrapher

That Was The Week That Was, Original Cast

Cultural events
Campus activities
Big name entertainment
"There's never anything to do on this campus."

Taylor Vrooman, Colonial Folk Song Singer

The Serendipity Singers

36

The George Shearing Quintet

Purdue Glee Club

Julliard String Quartet

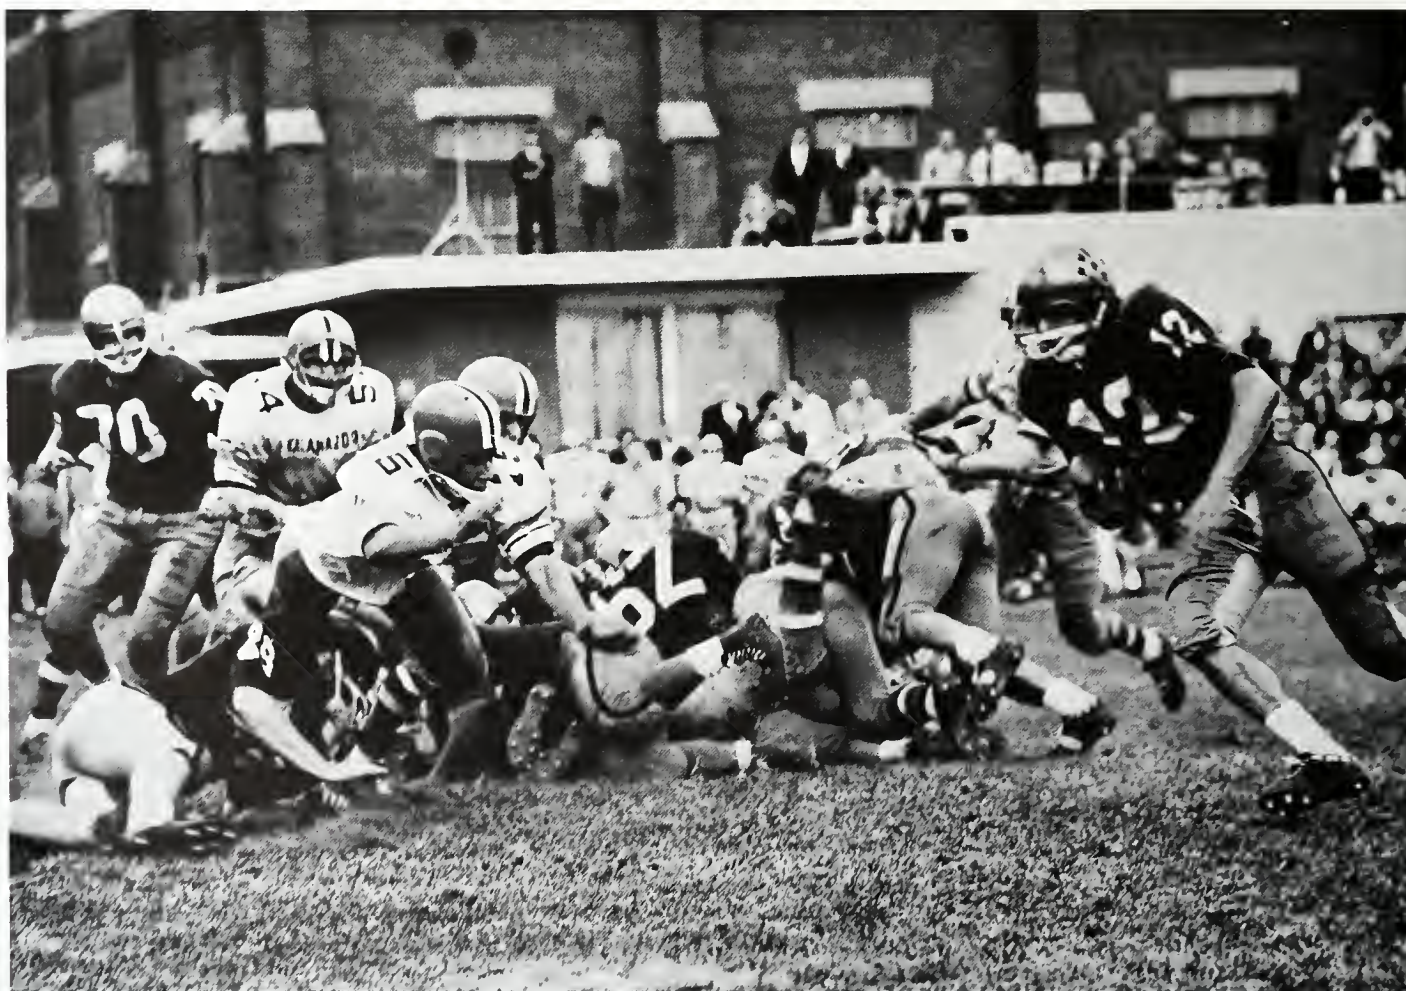

Homecoming Queen—Liz Cummings; Court—Jane Showalter, Molly Pennell, Kim Weers

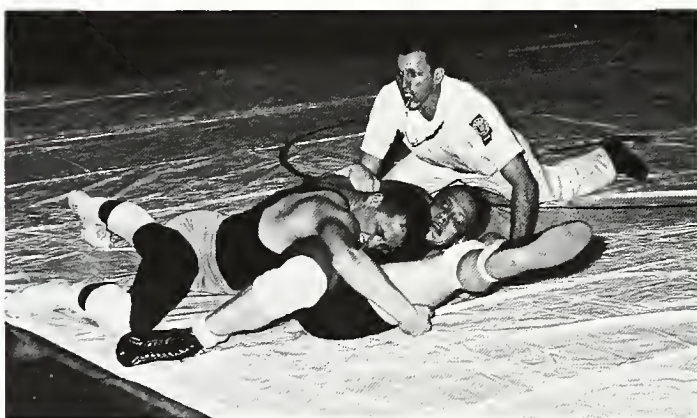

46

Practice
Sweat and strain
Pain
Compete
Win and lose Reward.

49

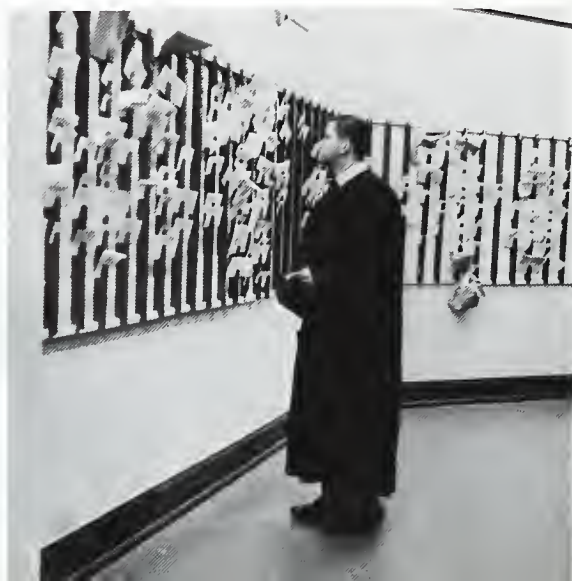

The last check of fanmail
 The family wandering about
 It doesn't seem possible that your Earlham career
 is about to end
 Still a lot yet to learn
 Still many students yet to come Earlham remains.

FRIENDS UNITED MEETING

Friends United Meeting — This is the new and more descriptive name adopted in 1965 by The Five Years Meeting of Friends. But, though the name changes, there continues to be gratitude for the association with the Earlham College community. To the 1965 graduates, we offer congratulations, praying that their college preparation will help them find increasing fulfillment as they meet the challenges of the coming years.

I have compiled a yearbook that is a result of many hours of thought, discussions with others, and just plain work. Hopefully, the end product is a meaningful photo-essay of life at Earlham during 1965. If you can identify with some part of it, then I shall be pleased. If you are dissatisfied, then my reply is try to help the Editor produce a better yearbook.

I feel fortunate that I had the opportunity to be Editor of the SARGASSO. It has made me think, work with others, and has given me worthwhile experience. There are many people that I am indebted to in producing the SARGASSO. These include understanding professors, interested students, and many friends. To all of you, I sincerely say thank you for your assistance. I don't think that our efforts were in vain.
